15.40 - 16.00 Questions & Answers16.00 SURESH CANAGARAJAH Diversity and Inclusivity in a Lingua Franca

I present debates from scholarship on diversifying English as a global language to address how a lingua franca can accommodate the identities, values, and interests of different communities. I analyze the models scholars have adopted in the past and evaluate their benefits and limitations. I present data from interactions in the global contact zones to argue for focusing on the strategies and dispositions that will enable interlocutors to negotiate the diverse norms and resources others bring to an interaction.

16.45 - 17.15 Questions & Answers17.15 - 18.15 Voices from the field: The Enrich course participants

1. MARIA ANGELA CERUTI (Italy); 2. KASHIF RAZA (Qatar); 3. EMMA ABBATE (Italy); 4. SAIMA ABEDI (Pakistan);
5. MICHELA PINNA (Italy); 6. FRANCESCA DE PORZI (Italy); 7. CATERINA LOFFREDO (Italy).
